

Spring Term
February 2024 – March 2024

We hope that you had a lovely half-term break! We would like to welcome the children back to another half term full of learning and fun!

As always, if you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to pop into school or email your child's class teacher.

Many thanks, Mrs Phipps and Mr Gardner 😊

Writing lessons:

Our topic for this half term will be writing focused. We will be basing all our work on the book 'Kensuke's Kingdom' which is written by Michael Morpurgo.

The children will be writing character descriptions about some of the main characters from the book.

They will also be writing a diary imagining they are trapped out at sea during a storm.

The children will also be writing a balanced argument to help the main character of the book decide if he should go on a trip around the world!
